About the hosts

I have a B.A in Psychology, like to host gatherings with friends and family and currently live in New York. I love to travel to the Dominican Republic! The beautiful blue beaches, street food, night-life, tropical weather, and amazing culture. Which is why we decided to be hosts where everyone from around the world can experience the same fun and relaxing city we experience every time we go.

-Erika

I am a software engineer with a love for technology and all things digital. In my free time, I love to travel and experience different cultures, history, and sightseeings. I enjoy trying new restaurants and food. I'm a fan of all types of music and enjoy dancing. I also enjoy playing video games, watching movies, series, anime, and participating in sports. Meeting new people is one of my favorite things to do. I am always open to exploring new opportunities and activities.

-Edward

I work in the programmatic/advertising industry and have a passion for technology and innovation. In my free time, I enjoy playing video games, watching anime and exploring new places through travel. I'm always up for meeting new people and love discovering new music and artists.

Things to do & eat in Sto.Dgo

- Visit La Zona Colonial: This is the historic colonial center of the city, where you can find cultural events, art galleries, museums, nightlife, and trendy restaurants. Some of the top streets and plazas to visit include the oldest cathedral in the Americas, Las Damas Street, Parque Colon, Plaza de España/Armas, El Conde Street, and the Casa Quien Art Gallery.
- Attend a performance at Microteatro: This unique theatre presents 15-minute plays by Dominican actors and writers about local life, culture, and relationships. The performances are held in an intimate space and sometimes offer interactive elements. You can also enjoy food and drink in the open-air courtyard before or after the show.

Things to do in Sto.Dgo

- Visit Quinta Dominica: This cultural center, housed in a 1500s Spanish home, offers talks about history and heritage, as well as changing art exhibits in the outdoor courtyard garden.
- Explore El Museo de la Resistencia: This museum honors those who have fought against oppression, such as the notorious dictatorship of Rafael Trujillo. It contains artwork, videos, text, photographs, and more. It is only in Spanish, but you can hire a local guide to translate for you.
- Take a walk through Parque Mirador del Este: This park offers breathtaking views of the Caribbean Sea and is a great place for a leisurely stroll or picnic.
